Re: FOIA Request NLRB-2022-001371

Dear Daniel Herrington (Friday, Eldredge & Clark, LLP):

This is in response to your request, under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, received on June 16, 2022, in which you requested “all documents discoverable under [FOIA] for the following NLRB charge, including all documents from the Regional Director investigation and from the investigation carried out by the Office of the General Counsel during Complainant’s appeal” in Almatis, Inc., Case No. 15-CA-279185. You assumed financial responsibility for the processing of your request in the amount of $37.00.

We acknowledged your request on June 16, 2022. In a June 23, 2022 telephone conversation and a follow up email with a member of the FOIA staff, a representative of your firm agreed on your behalf to narrow the scope of your request to only the appeal submitted by the charging party.

Your request is granted in part and denied in part, as explained below.

A search of the Agency’s electronic casehandling system, NxGen, has been conducted. This search has located four pages of responsive, releasable records from the requested case file, which are attached.

After a review, I have determined that portions of the records are exempt from disclosure under Exemptions 6, 7(C), and 7(D) of the FOIA (5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), (b)(7)(C), and (b)(7)(D)). The records are being provided to you either in their entirety or partially redacted to the extent they were found to be reasonably segregable from the exempt portions of the records. Specifically, redactions have been made to the records to protect the privacy interests of individuals named therein. These redactions were made pursuant to FOIA Exemption 6, which protects personally identifiable information, the release of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, FOIA Exemption 7(C), which protects records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, and Exemption 7(D), which protects to information the release of which “could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source...” where the information is provided under an express assurance of confidentiality, or in circumstances from which such an assurance could be reasonably inferred. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), (b)(7)(C), and (b)(7)(D).

For the purpose of assessing fees, we have placed you in Category A, commercial use requester. This category refers to requests “from or on behalf of a person who seeks information for a use or purpose that furthers the commercial, trade, or profit interests of the requester or the person on whose behalf the request is made, which can include furthering those interests through litigation.” NLRB Rules and Regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(1)(v). Consistent with this fee category, you “will be assessed charges to recover the full direct costs of searching for, reviewing for release, and duplicating the records sought.” 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(ii)(A). Charges are $9.25 per quarter-hour of professional time. 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(i).

Thirty minutes of professional time was expended in searching for and reviewing for release the requested material. Accordingly, please remit $18.50.

Payment Instructions: Due to the COVID-19 pandemic and resulting widespread employee telework at the Agency’s Headquarters offices, we are no longer accepting checks or money orders as payment at this time.
